

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
October 18, 2006

Media Contact: Carolyn Bonner
(773) 442-4240
c-bonner@neiu.edu

Paderewski Symphony Orchestra at NEIU to Celebrate Warsaw School of Economics' 100th

WHAT: The strings of the Paderewski Symphony Orchestra of Chicago will perform Pearls from Poland, featuring music from the Baroque to contemporary Polish music. Also included will be a selection of love songs from Polish and American cinema and special guests from Poland, Natasza Urbanska, Janusz Jozefowicz and Janusz Stoklosa. This concert is sponsored by the Consulate General of the Republic of Poland.

This free, public event is part of Poland and the United States: Economic Partners for the Future Conference, celebrating the Warsaw School of Economics' 100th anniversary and its partnership with Northeastern Illinois University.

WHERE: NEIU Auditorium
5500 North St. Louis Avenue in Chicago (Use campus entrance located at 3701 West Bryn Mawr Avenue.)
Free parking is available in Lot F and the Parking Garage.

WHEN: Tuesday, October 24 at 8 p.m. Free reservations for the performance are recommended, but not required. For reservations and more information call David Kamper, NEIU Graduate College, at (773) 442-4944.

DETAILS: The Paderewski Symphony Orchestra of Chicago (PaSO) is a not-for-profit charitable organization created in 1996 by Wojciech Niewrzol and his wife Barbara Bilszta. Today PaSO is among the largest professional musical institutions dedicated to the popularization of Polish music and culture outside of Poland.

Some of the greatest Polish artists have performed with the Paderewski Symphony Orchestra, including Janusz Ojenczak, Zofia Kilanowicz and Boguslaw Morka.

X

X

X