

Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration Calendar of Events

September 15, 2009 - October 15, 2009

HERITAGE MONTH
C
A
N
N
I
S
P
A
N
I
C

Storming The Gates: The Struggle For Access To Higher Education In Illinois Friday, September 11, 2009 Co-sponsored with Enrollment Services and The Transfer Success Program.	10:00 am	Auditorium
Hispanic Heritage Month Kick-Off Event Tuesday, September 15, 2009 Keynote Speaker: Victor Ortiz, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Program Coordinator, Latino & Latin American Studies Annual Celebration that marks the opening day of Hispanic Heritage Month	11:45 am	University Commons
Hispanic Heritage Display Cabinet September 15 - October 16, 2009 Display of Hispanic artifacts, literature, and art.	Ongoing	North Display Cabinet
Latino Cuisine by Sodexo Wednesday, September 16, 2009, Wednesday, September 23, 2009, Thursday, October 8, 2009, Thursday, October 15, 2009 Sodexo celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month by serving Latino Cuisine.		Cafeteria
¡Que viva México! (Sergei Eisenstein, Mexico-US-USSR, 1932) Wednesday, September 16, 2009 The most complete version of the Soviet film director's unfinished masterpiece. Filmed on location throughout Mexico, this experimental film reconstructs over four centuries of the nation's history from a Marxist perspective. Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.	1:30	Auditorium
Alberto Lopez: Latinos in Science Panel Tuesday, September 24, 2009	3:00 pm	SU-218
Noche De La Familia Friday, September 25, 2009 Reception celebrating family contributions to Northeastern Illinois University and the Latino community. Refreshments, dance performances, DJ and dancing for your enjoyment. For more information contact Carlos LeBron at 773-442-5435 or Janet Sandoval at 773-442-6038.	6:00 pm	Alumni Hall
Conversation on Commonalities Tuesday, September 29, 2009 Speakers: Dr. Barbara Scott and Dr. Santos Rivera. Sponsored by 2010 Black History Month Committee.	1:40 pm	Golden Eagles
TRIO (Juan José Herrera) Tuesday, September 29, 2009 Sponsored by NEIU Fulbright & Advising Council.	6:00 pm	Recital Hall
México, la revolución congelada (Raymundo Gleyzer, Argentina, 1971) Wednesday, September 30, 2009 Recently screened in Mexico for the first time after being censored for over thirty five years, this documentary demystifies the ruling party's claim to uphold the ideals of the 1910 Revolution. Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.	1:30 pm	Auditorium
Band REBOLÚ Friday, October 9, 2009 Traditional sounds from Colombia, Afro-Colombian	1:00 pm	Alumni Hall
Latino Pot Luck Tuesday, October 13, 2009 An informal reception for students, faculty, staff, and administrators to socialize outside of an academic setting. Home cooked food will be provided by members of the Hispanic Heritage Committee. Food donations are welcomed! Please contact Carlos LeBron or Joe Griffin (773-442-5435) for information and/or food donation.	1:00 pm	B-Wing Room 155
Library Research in Latino/Latin American Studies Tuesday, October 13, 2009 Presented by Nancy Murillo	2:00 pm	Library, 3rd Floor Cls Rm.
Frida, naturaleza viva (Paul Leduc, Mexico, 1983) Wednesday, October 14, 2009 The most ambitious biopic of notorious painter and activist Frida Kahlo, this experimental film re-politicized Kahlo at a time when she had been thoroughly de-politicized to serve the interests of the international art marketplace. Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.	1:30 pm	Auditorium
Noche Bohemia Thursday, October 15, 2009 For more information contact Dr. Ana Gil-Garcia at 773-442-5525	6:00 pm	SU-003
¡Y tu mamá también! (Alfonso Cuarón, Mexico, 2001) Tuesday, November 3, 2009 The most commercially successful Mexican film ever, this coming of - age road movie serves as a powerful allegory for the end of the seven decade rule by the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI). Sponsored by the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures.	1:30 pm	Auditorium
NEIU Authors En Español Wednesday, November 25, 2009 Featuring two NEIU alumni and one current student who have published in Spanish in Chicago, Mexico and Peru. José Mario Hernández Gallardo (B.A. Spanish 1988, M.A. Latin American Literatures and Cultures, 2002) Raúl Dorantes (M.A. Latin American Literatures and Cultures, 2009) Jorge Frisancho (University Without Walls Program) Book signing and reception to follow.	2:00 pm	Auditorium

*For information on any of the scheduled events, contact
Carlos LeBron or Joe Griffin at 773-442-5435 or Janet Sandoval at 773-442-6038.*