

Black History Month 2009

“Our Past Reminds, Our Present Demands, Our Future Calls...”

Opening Celebration

On January 20, 2009 join us as we kick off the 2009 Black History Month celebrations with a University-wide viewing of the Presidential Inauguration of President-Elect Barack Obama. A live broadcast of the inauguration will be shown in the Auditorium preceded by a panel discussion. Students will be able to express their thoughts about this momentous occasion and articulate how they will use their NEIU education to evoke change and use this commemorative occasion as a spring board to becoming world change agents.
