UNIVERSITY AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATION

University Ambassadors represent Northeastern students at their best. Ambassadors are positive role models for their peers. Their leadership extends throughout the university and into the Chicago community as well. They host events sponsored by the university's President and by the Office of Marketing and Communications. Some of the benefits of being an Ambassador include:

Being recognized as leaders by Northeastern students, faculty, administration and staff and other organizations in the Chicago community!

Receiving Priority Registration!

Receiving recognition through the Leadership and Service Transcript!

Developing new social networks!

Developing social and leadership skills!

University Ambassadors reflect a positive image of and express a positive attitude toward the university while in their role as Ambassadors. They are expected to maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.0 and be in good disciplinary standing.
