

REVISED

Date: February 5, 2007

To: The University Community

From: Melvin C. Terrell
Vice President for Student Affairs

Re: Director of Adult and Women Student Programs

---

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Sheena L. Glover as Director of Adult and Women Student Programs, effective February 1, 2007.

Ms. Glover has extensive experience in university administration and brings with her a unique combination of talents, dedication, and enthusiasm. She joins the NEIU community from Spelman College in Atlanta, Georgia, where she served as Director of Student Activities. Ms. Glover has a proactive approach and a strong commitment to the development and support of adult and women students.

Ms. Glover received her Bachelor of Science, Master of Science, and Specialist of Education in Higher Education Administration/Leadership Research degrees from The University of Southern Mississippi. With her exceptional managerial qualities and expertise, I am confident she will provide dynamic leadership to the Office of Adult and Women Student Programs.

I would like to thank the Search and Screen Committee members for their dedication and hard work: Jill Althage, Professor, Library and Women's Studies; David Farmer, Associate Professor, Psychology; Laurie Fuller, Associate Professor and Coordinator, Women's Studies; Janet Sandoval, Director, Non-Traditional Degree Programs; Denise Franklin, Vice President, Student Government Association. I would especially like to acknowledge Dr. Barbara Scott, Professor of Sociology and Women's Studies, for her distinguished leadership as Committee Chair, and Mr. Matthew Specht, Director of Campus Recreation, for serving as Assistant Chair.

You may contact Ms. Glover at extension 4871. Please join me in welcoming her to the NEIU community.