Lead in the world.

Jon Antol was named Northeastern Illinois University's Student Employee of the Month for February 2011. This honor recognizes exemplary student employees and is sponsored by the Student Employment Office. February's theme was "Performance Versatility."

Arlene Benzinger and Susan Stall of the Sociology Department indicated that Jon "has gone over and above" their expectations in all of his duties in the department. He has shown true versatility by performing such duties as serving as compositional editor of the department newsletter, posting items to the department website, and serving as photographer at Sociology Club Events!!!!!!

CONGRATULATIONS Jon and keep up the great work!!!!
