

Northeastern Baccalaureate Goals

Intellectual and Practical Skills

- Inquiry, analysis and evaluation
- Critical and creative thinking
- Written and oral communication proficiency
- Original design and artistic performance
- Quantitative literacy
- Information literacy and research skills
- Technological fluency
- Teamwork and problem solving

Immersion into Disciplines and Fields of Study

- Knowledge of human cultures and the physical and natural world
- Mastery of different modes of knowing and integrative learning in a student's major, with a broad awareness of other areas of study
- Ability to synthesize general and specialized studies both within and across disciplines
- Use of classroom knowledge to identify and engage big questions, as well as the practical issues of everyday life

Learning within the Framework and Resources of NEIU

- Integration of knowledge through internships, volunteerism, service learning, student teaching, applied research and writing, creative work and performance, etc.
- Engagement at the personal and community level
- Application of local and global civic knowledge
- Understanding and appreciation of the complexities of individual identities
- Intercultural knowledge and competence