Special Skills Scholarship Evaluation Standards

High School Applicants
  o The applicant exhibits promise of development in the visual arts.
  o The applicant demonstrates basic understanding of the principles of design.

1. Freshman
  o Effective use of basic elements of design such as composition, movement, juxtaposition and others.
  o Early development of technical skills in variety of materials.
  o Basic appreciation of inherent qualities of various materials.
  o Variety of work in the foundation areas within the art program.

2. Sophomore & Junior
  o Progressive and effective use of the elements and principles of design.
  o Continued development of technical skills.
  o Development of conceptual ideas in work produced.
  o A growing appreciation of materials with an early to moderate focus on a particular area.

3. Senior
  o Quality of work has significantly increased.
  o Strong conceptual ideas that result in a sense of depth within the work.
  o A number of pieces produced show strong development within an area of concentration.
  o Advanced technical skills that illustrate a comfort in work produced in the area of choice.