GMAT PREPARATION COURSE

The GMAT Preparation Course offered through the College of Business and Management at Northeastern Illinois University prepares students for the GMAT exam through test taking techniques, short cuts in math and homework assignments. The course covers the different areas tested on the exam, (reading comprehension, sentence correction, critical reasoning, integrated reasoning, discrete quantitative and data sufficiency). Two sessions are dedicated for a practice test in the computer lab. All books, study guides and materials are included in the tuition. Books will be distributed on the first day of class by your instructor.

The course is a non-credit (no grade) course.
