Reading Teacher Endorsement Program: Secondary Level

Overview

The Department of Literacy Education offers the Reading Teacher Endorsement for Secondary Grades, designed to meet the urgent need for informed and trained instructional leaders in literacy education. The specific objectives of the program are:

- to increase candidates' knowledge of the nature and scope of literacy processes; to advance professional growth in the teaching of literacy
- to provide specialized training in assessment and intervention for students who struggle with reading and writing
- to prepare candidates to effectively address the literacy challenges students may experience with state mandated assessments
- to prepare candidates for leadership in literacy instructional planning, curriculum development, and professional support.

Credit hours required: 24
