If the University is officially closed or not conducting business during the scheduled examination period, examinations will be re-scheduled at the same time and in the same location as are needed and will be communicated through an University Targeted Announcement.

If a student identifies a schedule conflict affecting a formal examination, (s)he should contact the professor within two weeks of the beginning of class to make alternative arrangements for taking the examination. Reasonable accommodations will be made if: a) the conflict arises because of a religious belief, or b) the conflict is created by the examination pattern.

Note: Other campuses maintain different final examination schedules. Please contact each campus' administrative office to determine when a final examination will be given.

Northeastern Illinois University subscribes to the principle of affirmative action and does not discriminate against age, ancestry, arrest record, citizenship status, color, disability, gender, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or unfavorable discharge.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) provides for the confidentiality of student records. The policy is printed in the University Catalog and addresses the location and procedures for the availability, release and access of student records.
