

Travel to Ghana, West Africa this summer!

International Study Course, Summer IA 2010

AFAM 303:

Global Collaborations: Cross-Cultural Research

If you are interested in an in-depth, interdisciplinary, international research experience, this course is for you! We will travel to Ghana, West Africa and engage in collaborative research projects with Ghanaian students at Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology (KNUST). This is a chance to experience Ghanaian culture while also engaging in exciting scholarly and creative projects.

Week 1: NEIU classroom: background on Ghana

Week 2: Ghana: travel to key sites (including capital city Accra; World Heritage Sites of Elmina and Cape Coast castles; and vibrant cultural and artistic center of Kumasi)

Weeks 3-5: Ghana: partner with Ghanaian students and conduct research projects in Kumasi area and at KNUST

Week 6: NEIU: return to Chicago and debrief

Approximate Cost: $2500

For more information, contact:

Professor Tracy Luedke: 773-442-5621; tluedke@neiu.edu

or

Professor Jane Weintraub: 773-442-4918; j-weintraub@neiu.edu