

“Reflective Professionals Building Learning Communities”

Department of Counselor Education

COURSE TITLE

COUN 414 Advanced Career Counseling

INSTRUCTOR INFORMATION

Name
Office
Phone
Email

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Advanced Career Counseling is a laboratory course open to graduate students who have been admitted to Candidacy in the Counselor Education Program and who have earned credit for COUN 409. the purpose of the course is to provide students with an in-depth experience in career counseling which will require them to integrate their knowledge of career and counseling theories, individual counseling skills, evaluation techniques, and skills related to the job search process. Students will be required to formulate, present, and write an in-depth client case study.

PREREQUISITES

Admission to Candidacy and COUN 409 Career Development

REQUIRED TEXTS

Lowman, R.L. (latest edition). The clinical practice of career assessment: Interests, abilities, and personality.