

CURRICULUM VITA

EISENBERG, ANDREW

Associate Professor, History

Undergraduate and Graduate Faculty

Northeastern Illinois University

Appointed 1991

Phone: (773) 442-5627

E-mail: A-Eisenberg@neiu.edu

A. Educational Background

1985-1991	University of Washington, Seattle	1991	Ph.D.
1983-1985	Stanford University	1985	M.A.
1981-1983	SUNY at New Paltz, NY	1983	B.A.
1972-1974	SUNY at New Paltz, NY

B. Teaching and Related Experience

1. Courses Taught

Survey of East Asian history, 1200 BC-Present.

Classical Chinese history

Modern Chinese history

Classical Japanese history

Modern Japanese history

Readings in Classical Chinese history (graduate level)

Readings in Modern Chinese history (graduate level)

Readings in Modern Japanese history (graduate level)

C. Research/Creative Activities

1. Research Activities

a. Books

Kingship in Early Medieval China. Brill Press (February 2008).

b. Articles

“A Study in Court Factionalism: The Politics of Tang Taizong.” T’ang Studies 20-21 (2002-03): 39-69.

“Installing an Heir: Factional Politics in the Court of Tang Taizong.” Tang Yanjiu 5 (1999): 247-268.

“Weberian Patrimonialism and Imperial Chinese History.” Theory and Society 27 (1998): 83-102.

“Warfare and Political Stability in Medieval North Asian Regimes.” T’oung Pao 83 (1997): 300-328.

“Kingship, Power and the Hsuan-wu Men Incident of the T’ang.” T’oung Pao 80 (1994): 223-259.

“Retired Emperorship in Medieval China: The Northern Wei.” T’oung Pao (1991): 49-87.

c. Book Reviews

Review of Jennifer Holmgren, Marriage, Kinship and Power in Northern China, in T’oung Pao 85 (1999): 161-168.

Review of Yihong Pan, Son of Heaven and Heavenly Qaghan: Sui-Tang China and its Neighbors, in T’oung Pao 85 (1999): 470-475.

d. Presentations

“Kingship in Early Medieval China,” presented at Phi Alpha Theta (NEIU, 2007).

“Ethno-political Factors in the Collapse of the Northern Qi,” presented at the Association for Asian Studies convention (San Diego, 2004).

“The Significance of the Northern Wei Retired Emperorship,” presented at the Seventh Annual Joint Northern Dynasties and Period of Disunion Conference (Datong, PRC, 2001).

“Factional Politics in the Early Tang Dynasty of China.” 31st Annual Northern Great Plains History Conference (LaCrosse, WI, 1996).

“Chinese Politics Today.” Phi Alpha Theta (NEIU, 1994).

“Traditions of Imperial Succession in Medieval China.” T’ang Studies Society (Los Angeles, CA., 1993).

“Power and Kinship in the Northern Dynasties and the Early Tang.” International Conference on Imperial Rulership and Cultural Change (Taizhong, Taiwan, 1992).

“Warfare and Internal Political Consolidation in the Early Northern Wei.” Early Medieval China Group (New Orleans, LA, 1991).

e. Research Awards

Fall 2006 Sabbatical.

Fall 1998 Sabbatical.

Summer 1998, recipient of the People’s Republic of China, Ministry of Education “Chinese Culture Research Fellowship.”

D. Service Activities

1. Departmental

History Department Undergraduate Major Advisor, 2007-Present.

Member of the Fiscal Affairs Committee, 2002- Spring 2006, Chair – 2005-06.

Developed a new six credit course for the title varies designation – HIST 394, “Splendor of Chinese Civilization,” (China History Tour), 2002.

U.S. Colonial Search and Screen Committee member, 2001-02.

2. College and University

History Department representative to the Council of Academic Affairs, 2007-Present, 2000-2003.

Co-ordinator, Asian Studies Minor, 1993-Present.

Organizer and participant in Asian American Heritage Week presentations, 1999-Present.

Contributing lecturer to the Asian American Experience Seminar, 2003-Present.

Member, International Programs Faculty Advisory Committee (in its various permutations), 1997-Present.

Faculty Advisor to the Anime Club, 2004-2006.

Faculty Co-Advisor to the Asia Club, 2000.

Outside member of the Art Department's Art Historian Search and Screen Committee, 2005-2006.

Member, University Search and Screen Committee for Vice President of Finance and Administration, 2000.

3. Local and National

Staff member, American Historical Association Local Arrangements Committee, 2000.

Member, Early Medieval China editorial board, 1998-Present.

Referee, T'ang Studies manuscript, 2007.

Referee, Early Medieval China manuscript, 2001.

E. Membership in Scholarly Organizations

- a. Member, Association of Asian Studies.
- b. Member, Early Medieval China Group.
- c. Member, T'ang Studies Society.
- d. Member, Phi Alpha Theta Society.
- e. Associate, Center for East Asian Studies, University of Chicago.