

Newberry Seminar on Women and Gender

Schedule of presenters for 2009-2010

All meetings of the seminar take place at the Newberry Library on Fridays, 3-5 pm.

Papers will be pre-circulated via email. If you would like a copy, contact scholl@newberry.org to join the mailing list. All meetings are open to the public.

Sept 25: Thomas A. Foster, DePaul University, “John Adams and Masculine Sexual Identity”

Comment: John D’Emilio, University of Illinois, Chicago

Oct 30: Panel entitled “Women, Violence, and Race in the Movements against Rape and Abortion”

Catherine O. Jacquet, University of Illinois at Chicago, “Interracial Rape in the 1960s: Race and Sexual Equality in Maryland’s Giles-Johnson Case”

Karissa Haugeberg, University of Iowa, “Women, Gender, and Violence in the Anti-Abortion Movement, 1981-1990”

Comment: Christine Stansell, University of Chicago

Nov 13: Panel entitled “Targeting Women in the 1950s”

Elizabeth Collins, University of Illinois at Chicago, “An Odd Emotional Girl: How Psychological Profiling and Gender Shaped Security Risk Assessment”

Nicolaas J. Mink, University of Wisconsin at Madison, “‘Let Her Eat Out’: The Politics of Gender and Domesticity in the Postwar Restaurant”

Comment: Christine Stansell, University of Chicago

Jan 22: Adrienne Phelps Coco, University of Illinois at Chicago, “The Contested Body of Mollie Fancher: Lay Authority and the Hysteria Diagnosis”

Comment: Kim Nielsen, Miami University of Ohio

Feb 19: Karen Johnson, University of Illinois at Chicago, “The Long Civil Rights Movement in Chicago: Ann Harrigan and Women’s Catholic Interracialism, 1933-1948”

Comment: Jane Dailey, University of Chicago

March 19: Panel entitled “New Approaches to Second-Wave Feminism, 1964-1984”

Jenny Barker-Devine, Illinois College, “‘The ERA is Their Bag, Agriculture is Mine’: Midwestern Agrarian Feminists in the Second Wave, 1964-1984”

Voichita Nachescu, Grand Valley State University, “Race Matters? African American Women, Feminism, and Consciousness-Raising in 1970s Chicago”

Comment: Sue Levine, University of Illinois, Chicago

April 23: Brooke N. Newman, University of Aberdeen, “Sex, Empire, and Identity: Illicit Liaisons in Dr. Jonathan Troup’s Journal of Dominica and Scotland, 1780s-1790s”

Comment: Isaac Land, Indiana State University

May 21: Panel entitled “Gender, Professionalism, and Business in the Early Twentieth Century”

Nancy Marie Robertson, Indiana University/Purdue University, Indianapolis, “The ‘Domestication’ of Business: Service in Turn-of-the-Century American Banks”

Genevieve G. McBride, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, and Stephen R. Byers, Marquette University, “Murder for Love, Journalism for Bylines: The Colorful Career of Jazz Age Chicago’s Premier Woman Crime Reporter”

Comment: Sue Levine, University of Illinois, Chicago