Frequently Asked Questions

Am I required to participate in this program?
Yes, if you were selected as a Wentworth Scholar, participation in the program is a condition of your admission to the University.

What are the required activities?
- All Wentworth Scholars Workshops
- All meetings with your academic advisor
- College to Career Week
- Long Night Against Procrastination
- Freshman Congratulatory
- At least one workshop or fair from the Career Development Center schedule

What if I cannot attend a workshop?
Contact Felicia Keelen, Director of Student Transition Services. Let her know which alternative TRIO workshop you will attend. If you cannot attend a Wentworth workshop or the alternative workshop, Felicia will develop an alternative option for you.

I don't want to or have time to attend campus events.
Participation in campus events is an expectation of the program and required. You will be given multiple options so you can choose the activity that best fits your schedule.

Who can I speak to if I have concerns about my academic progress, personal or financial issues?
There are a variety of resources available for you at Northeastern. If you do not know where to start, speak to Felicia Keelen or Chris Hernandez (c-hernandez31@neiu.edu), Academic Coach for the Wentworth Scholars Program.
