Discussion: there was no discussion

The motion carried by acclamation.

Opportunity for Public Comment

Chair Palos announced the opportunity for public comment in accordance with P.A. 91-0715. There were two requests to speak.

1. Dr. Nicholas Hoel, NEIU faculty member and Chair of the University Advisory Committee
Topic: to thank the Board for its commitment to shared governance and to encourage its continuation
2. Dr. Rachel Birmingham, NEIU faculty member
Topic: to share an observation about the University's bookstore

Chair's and President's Remarks

President Gibson congratulated and thanked everyone for a successful academic year. Dr. Gibson introduced the new Assistant Dean of Students for Undocumented Student Resources and Care, Quintiliano Rios Perez. The new Dean of the Goodwin College of, Dr. Thomas Phillion, will begin July 1. Finalists for the Executive Director of Marketing and Communications will be coming to campus soon. The Seal of Excelencia is due tomorrow. Thank you for the many people who have given their time to complete this application. Dr. Gibson, Chair Palos and others recently met with the Chicago Public Schools CEO, Pedro Martinez to discuss various partnerships and collaborations. A similar meeting with City Colleges of Chicago Chancellor, Juan Salgado, will happen soon. Governor Pritzker's Executive Order is still in place regarding COVID-19. The University continues to offer Shield Illinois testing. No clusters or spread at the University. Vaccinations will be required for all incoming freshmen. As of June 3, NEIU has received 527 intent-to-enroll commitments for first-time, full-time freshmen. The University has surpassed its 2021 application goal of 4,801 with more than 5,000 applications received to date. 187 first-time, full-time freshmen have already registered for fall classes. This same time last year, there were 34 students registered. So far, the University has awarded over $100,000 for students who qualify for the NEIU for You top-off aid program. There are 285 first time students have already registered for orientations next week. Orientation will take place throughout the summer. Additional enrollment updates will be provided to the Board in July and August. ASPIRA schools are celebrating their commencement exercises this afternoon in the University's Auditorium and a Northeastern registration table is set up nearby. Trustee Kalayil and Dr. Gibson hosted a stakeholder meeting with members from across the University to discuss the proposed new enrollment and admission processes. Northeastern has entered into a formal agreement with Hope Chicago to provide tuition, fee, books, computer, annual stipend, and housing at The Nest for qualifying Chicago Public School students. This past year, Northeastern had just under 100 local high school students who participated in the University's Dual Enrollment program. Students will continue to take classes over the summer and the University expects to expand the program next fall to schools on the city's south and west sides. Trustees expressed their appreciation to Vice Presidents Kimberley Buster-Williams and Manish Kumar for their efforts in the enrollment initiatives and work for the upcoming fall semester.

Chair Palos thanked his fellow Trustees for their participation in the May Commencement exercises, and thanked the faculty and staff for everything they did to navigate learning and services through the pandemic. Chair Palos recognized the incoming Student Trustee-elect, Ms. Shyrice Howell, and asked Dr. Terry Mena, Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students, to introduce her. Shyrice is a Junior Accounting major. Her term will begin on July 1. Trustees' learning session on Freedom of Expression on Campus was presented during their luncheon by Dr. Jackie Merrill from the Bipartisan Policy Center and Associate Provost Shayne Cofer. Trustees received a copy of the non-material audit findings from the University independent auditors. The President will work with staff to begin addressing the findings. Thank you to Trustees who have completed the event participation form for upcoming events. The next big event will be the 50th Annual Kane Golf Outing on August 1st.

Shared Governance Presentation: University Planning and Budget Council

DeMara Campbell, Admissions and Records Associate and Chair of the University Planning and Budget Council, made a presentation about the Council, its mission, and current membership.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Executive Committee

Chair Palos reported that the committee met on Monday, May 9, 2022 in the Golden Eagles Room on the main campus. The committee discussed several items and is presenting one item today for action.

Action Item I. A. Approval of 2022-23 Learning Session Topics

Trustee Serrano, seconded by Trustee Azcoitia, moved to accept the 2022-23 Learning Session Topics as presented.

Discussion: Trustees reviewed the list and asked general questions about the topics. Chair Palos recommended that the Board hold a summer retreat and possibly have one or more the topics highlighted.

The motion carried by acclamation.

Academic/Student Affairs, Enrollment, and Technology Committee

The Academic/Student Affairs, Enrollment, and Technology Committee met on May 12, 2022 in the Golden Eagles Room on the main campus. The committee received several informational reports. A particular issue regarding University enrollment procedures that arose prompted a separate meeting on May 19 at the behest of Trustee Kalayil and organized by the President and Dr. Buster-Williams. Various stakeholders from across the University participated in a round-table discussion that addressed enrollment practices and their alignment with Higher Learning Commission policies number eight and nine. The meeting was facilitated by Dr. Shireen Roshanravan, Executive Director of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Trustees responded that they look forward to learning the steps to be implemented that enhance the University's enrollment practices.

Finance, Buildings and Grounds Committee

Trustee Eagle reported that the Finance, Buildings and Grounds Committee met on Monday May 16, 2022 in the Golden Eagles Room on the main campus. The committee received several informational briefings and presents three items recommended today for action.

Action Item I. B. Approval of Recommendation for Purchases $100,000 or Greater: Real Estate Broker Services for the Bryn Mawr Properties

Trustee Serrano, seconded by Trustee Azcoitia, moved to approve the recommendation of the selection of CBRE, Inc. as the real estate broker and owner's representative for the Bryn Mawr Properties for an initial five-year agreement with five one-year renewal options, and an eight percent commission rate based on final ground leases. Although the Trustees voted on five one-year renewals for this contract, the RFP only accounted for three one-year renewal options. The contract will be written with three one-year renewal options.

Discussion: Trustees were apprised of the University's obligations and responsibilities regarding demolition, surveying, and site preparation, as well as the longer-term goal of recouping these upfront costs. Trustee Eagle explained that the University will have the final say as to who can lease the property and for what purpose. Trustees engaged in a discussion about the services of the owner's representative. Mr. Mike Nardini explained this and answered other general questions.

Roll was called and the vote was as follows:

Azcoitia: Yes	Garcia: Yes	Mordican: Yes	Serrano: Yes
Eagle: Yes	Kalayil: Abstain	Palos: Yes	Stein: Yes
