Dates to Remember

6- LABOR DAY
No SCHOOL

13 - Fredrick's Birthday

This is the first of our monthly newsletters. Usually it would consist of an overall view of our curriculum for the year and details of our daily activities. But this is no ordinary year. It is an unprecedented time that no one could possibly plan for. We will do our best to provide a solid education and help foster a love of learning that we hope will be a foundation for your child's future education.

Our overall goal for the year is to give your child words. We will expose them to a wide variety of language through our story times, finger plays and circle time activities.

We will also work on social skills. This is the first time most of the kids have been in a group of their peers so getting along socially is hard work.

The kids will be making several projects during the month including hand-and foot-printing and some painting projects to use their fine-motor skills.

We will also be exploring different kinds of movement to apply their gross-motor skills such as rocking, bouncing, clapping, stretching, and many others that you will see your child trying at home.

It promises to be an exciting year and we want to thank-you for giving us such wonderful kids to work with.
