B. Questions to help determine whether an accommodation is needed.
An employee with a disability is entitled to an accommodation only when the accommodation is needed because of the disability. The following questions may help determine whether the requested accommodation is needed because of the disability. Please attach additional sheets as needed.
What limitation(s) is interfering with job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?
What job function(s) or benefits of employment is the employee having trouble performing or accessing because of the limitation(s)?
How does the employee's limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?

Responsible Officer: Executive Director of Human Resouces Responsible Office: Human Resources

C. Questions to help determine effective accommodation options.
If an employee has a disability and needs an accommodation because of the disability, the employer must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations:
Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations to improve job performance? If so, what are they?
How would your suggestions improve the employee's job performance?
