

Jacqueline R. Anderson, PhD., LC.S.W.

Curriculum Vitae

Summary:

Pursuing an opportunity to serve as trainer, consultant, and/or counselor at an agency that serves women living with trauma, homelessness, incarceration, mental illness, and/or substance abuse issues.

Education

Doctor of Philosophy. Loyola University of Chicago School of Social Work

Completion Date: May 2009

Masters of Social Work. Loyola University of Chicago, 1998

B.A. Psychology. University of Illinois at Chicago, 1990

Dissertation

Title: The Nature of Hope Among Women who Experience Homelessness.

Teaching Interests

Teaching interests include: Clinical Foundations; Policy; Ethnicity, Race and Culture; and Social Welfare, Clinical Supervision and Management in Social Services

Teaching/Training Experience

Assistant Professor/Field Director. College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Social Work Program. Northeastern Illinois University. Courses taught include: Field Seminar; Social Work Advocacy with Persons who are Homeless.

Clinical Instructor. School of Social Work. Loyola University of Chicago. August 2009- Present. Courses taught include: Issues in the Treatment of Women; Supervision and Staff Development in Social Services; Social Welfare and Social Work; Organizational Management in Social Services; Mental Health Policy; Social Work with Individuals and Families.

- Member of Fieldwork Committee
- Member of Institute on Research and Innovative Practice

Trainer. Midwest Harm Reduction Institute. Chicago, Illinois. Plan and provide Harm Reduction Training to organizations in the Midwest.

Adjunct Professor. School of Social Work. Aurora University. Aurora,

Illinois and Williams Bay, Wisconsin. August 2006-Present. Courses taught include: Psychopathology and Advanced Practice

Adjunct Professor. School of Social Work. Loyola University of Chicago, September 2004-August 2009. Courses taught include: Women's Issues in Treatment; Individuals and Families; Community Intervention; Staff Management and Staff Development in Social Services; Intervention with Families

Other Work Experience

Therapist. Cathedral Counseling Center. December 2012-Present

Clinical Services Officer. Deborah's Place. July 2010-Present

Director of Clinical Services. Deborah's Place. January 2001-June 2010.

Case Management Program Administrator. Deborah's Place October 1999-January 2001

Therapist. Lorene Replogle Counseling Center. January 2002-May 2003.

Outreach Worker. Thresholds Mobile Assessment Unit. April 1993-October, 1999.