

From the Classroom to the Community

NEIU Students and Alumni Engaged in Community-Based Health Equity Work

In this panel discussion, NEIU students and alums engaged in community health equity work discuss their experiences and career paths. Current NEIU students interested in health, social justice, and community engagement are encouraged to attend. Our panelists will discuss their own experiences and field questions. This is a free event, but please register.

Panelists:

Arely Anaya

BA Global Studies 2020
Bilingual Deputy Operations Manager,
Farmworker and Landscaper Advocacy Project (FLAP)

Elanyce Mercado

BSW, Minor in Child Advocacy Studies 2022
Client Support Services, Legal Aid Chicago

Selina Williams

BS Community Health 2020
Community Health Worker (CHW),
Family Christian Health Center

Fahmida Begum

BS Community Health 2020
Public Health Coordinator, Indo-American Center

Juan Calderon

BA Sociology
Chief Operations Officer
The Puerto Rican Cultural Center

April 27

6-7:30 p.m

On Zoom

Click the button above to register