But First: What Might the Biden Administration Do?

---

- Issue sub-regulatory guidance
- Modify enforcement stance
- Repeal regulations and adopt new regulations at the same time
- Repeal only and adopt new regulations at a later time

---

© 2021 Husch Blackwell LLP

4

Important Threshold Issue

- What policies/procedures potentially apply: Title IX, student conduct code, others?
- What is being alleged – by whom and against whom?
- When and where did alleged conduct occur?
- Do you need more information to make an assessment?
- Who is involved in making an assessment?
- How and when will the results of assessment be communicated?
- Then what happens?

5

Did the alleged conduct occur in an education program or activity?

- Title IX applies to sexual harassment in the “education program or activity” of a federal funding recipient
  - Title IX defines “education program or activity” to include the “operations” of educational institutions
- Title IX does not apply to private conduct occurring in private location that is not part of education program/activity

Foster v. Univ. of Mich. (6th Cir. 2020) (en banc)

---

- Reaffirming “deliberate indifference” standard in affirming summary judgment for university
- Arose out of alleged student-on-student sexual harassment during MBA program in L.A. via emails, texts, social media posts, and physical contact
- No contact order (which respondent violated), placed respondent in different hotel, arranged separate meal times, precluded attendance at commencement
- Made no contact order permanent after investigation as sanction for policy violation

HUSCH BLACKWELL

43

Doe v. Marian Univ. (7th Cir. 2020)

---

- Affirming summary judgment in Title IX respondent case
- Pressure from Obama-era OCR not enough when no other evidence of gender bias because the parties were treated equally
- Contrasted case with Doe v. Purdue Univ., in which the university allegedly credited the female complainant’s account without ever hearing from her and the complainant was supported by an organization that had posted article titled, “Alcohol isn’t the cause of campus sexual assault. Men are.”

44

Doe v. Univ. of the Sciences (3rd Cir. 2020)

---

- Reversed dismissal of Title IX claim brought by male respondent
- Rejected often used framework set forth by 2nd Circuit in Yusuf v. Vassar College that used erroneous outcome and selective enforcement categories
- Issue is whether the alleged facts, if true, support a plausible inference of gender bias/discrimination based on sex
- Extended live hearing requirement with cross examination to all private institutions in the 3rd Circuit

Karasek v. Regents of the Univ. of Cal. (9th Cir. 2020)

---

- Institutions can be liable for “pre-assault” deliberate indifference claims
- Based on theory that Title IX policies are inadequate, create heightened risk of sexual misconduct, and lead a complainant to be sexually harassed or assaulted
- Relied on 2014 California State Auditor report that said from 2009-2013 the university did not notify or regularly update parties, complete investigations in timely fashion, or provide proper training
